EDLD 6333 Applied Statistics 13 Semester Credit Hours (3 Lecture Hours)

This is a course in univariate statistics, which includes the use of Statistical Package for the Social Sciences (SPSS) with exercises related to various descriptive and inferential statistical techniques.

EDLD 6335 Dissertation Seminar3 Semester Credit Hours (3 Lecture Hours)

The course is designed to provide the student with the knowledge and skills needed to read, analyze and synthesize educational research, and to give the student experience in the development and conduct of a research project. Course content includes instruction in preparation of a research proposal, identification of a research problem, sampling techniques, research design, instrumentation, data collection, and data analysis.

Prerequisite: (EDLD 6333) and (EDLD 6392 or 6385) and (EDLD 6384).

EDLD 6342 Community Leadership Development3 Semester Credit Hours (3 Lecture Hours)

This course develops collaborative leadership skills related to initiating and implementing school and community partnerships. A special focus is the enhancement of critical literacy skills—the capacity to read and interpret events within the socio-political context of community-embedded educational leadership.

EDLD 6384 Qualitative Research Methods3 Semester Credit Hours (3 Lecture Hours)

This course is based on reviews of the theoretical and methodological approaches to qualitative research. Students will situate qualitative inquiry/research in their philosophical, theoretical, and historical situations, learn methods of qualitative design, and develop a preliminary capacity to collect, analyze, and interpret qualitative empirical materials.

EDLD 6385 Advanced Data Analysis in Qualitative Methods3 Semester Credit Hours (3 Lecture Hours)

This course is designed for doctoral students who want to pursue their interests in qualitative methods and who want to use these methods in their dissertation. Students would need to have a qualitative research methods course completed in order to take this class. Students will learn to use various qualitative data analysis methods using multiple data sources.

Prerequisite: EDLD 6384.

EDLD 6390 Special Topics in Educational Leadership3 Semester Credit Hours

Selected topics in an identified area of Educational Leadership; advanced investigations of selected topics and problems dealing with curriculum theory, program design, and experimental formulations. May be repeated for credit when topics vary.

EDLD 6392 Applied Statistics 23 Semester Credit Hours (3 Lecture Hours)

The course in advanced statistical procedures is a continuation of EDLD 6333. Special emphasis is placed on analysis of variance (ANOVA) techniques such as one-way and factorial ANOVA, analysis of covariance (ANCOVA), repeated measures ANOVA, and multivariate analysis of variance (MANOVA), as well as multiple regression analysis, logistic regression analysis, and discriminant analysis. Also included are selected nonparametric statistical techniques. The course includes hands-on experiences in the use of Statistical Package for the Social Sciences (SPSS) with exercises related to the topics covered.

Prerequisite: EDLD 6333.

EDLD 6395 Analysis and Reporting of Research Data3 Semester Credit Hours (3 Lecture Hours)

This course is designed for doctoral students who want to develop their data analysis skills for their research projects in order to report findings for publication purposes and dissertations. Students will learn how to select appropriate data analysis methods, analyze data, and learn how to academically report research findings.

EDLD 6396 Directed Independent Study3 Semester Credit Hours

NCD.

EDLD 6397 Dissertation Research3 Semester Credit Hours (3 Lecture Hours)

This course is designed to assist the student in writing a three-chapter (introduction, review of literature, methods) research proposal that may become the basis for a doctoral dissertation.

Prerequisite: EDLD 6333, 6384 and 6335 and (EDLD 6392 or 6385).

EDLD 6398 Dissertation

1-6 Semester Credit Hours (1-6 Lecture Hours)

Completion of an approved field study under the supervision of a dissertation adviser.

EDLD 6609 Practicum in Higher Education: Processes and Practices

6 Semester Credit Hours (6 Lecture Hours)

This course will examine the functions and practices typically found in institutions of higher education. Students will examine these functions and practices in the context of a complex organization and develop an understanding of how they contribute to the mission of the institution. Students will also complete an internship experience in a University or community college office, not their own.

EDLD 6696 Directed Individual Study

1-6 Semester Credit Hours

May be repeated when topics vary.
