MARICULTURE (MARI)

MARI 5398 Internship
3 Semester Credit Hours

INTERNSHIP An internship allowing students to participate and develop skills and techniques relating to the culture of certain marine species. Opportunities will be in the specialization areas of maturation and reproduction, hatchery and incubation, and grow-out. Students will participate in internship activities at selected aquaculture facilities.