STUDIO ART, MINOR

Program Requirements

This minor is for students who have a desire to develop their creative problem solving and artmaking skills alongside a major in another college or department. By minoring in Studio Art, a student can complement their undergraduate studies by demonstrating their abilities to visually communicate concepts and to utilize interdisciplinary approaches to critical thinking. The minor consists of 21 semester hours in Studio Art courses (7 classes).

The Studio Art Minor introduces students to the creative process and visual thinking in foundation courses. Through several options for upper level courses, a student can examine a wide range of visual and artistic traditions as they develop a more individualized approach to their area(s) of interest.
