HISTORY, MINOR

Program Description
The History minor is designed for students who are interested in history but cannot commit to it as their major. It makes an excellent companion for students majoring in pre-law and criminal justice, political science, literature and modern languages, philosophy, and sociology.

Program Requirements
The minor requires just eighteen credit hours beyond the history core and can usually be completed in one academic year. After completing six hours of lower-division history surveys (HIST 2311, 2312, 2322), students choose two courses each from two large clusters of upper-division electives.
